

Grüner Veltliner Breiter Rain 2007

Weingut Sepp Moser, Rohrendorf
Wine region Kremstal

Grape variety: 100% Grüner Veltliner

Vineyard site: Breiter Rain, (2,5ha), broad south exposed terraces. The name “Breiter Rain” means freely translated “broad (Breiter) uncultivated piece of land (rain, old-german word)”, well... it is one of the best sites of the region Kremstal!

Soil: Loess

Harvesting date: October

Grape processing: de-stemming and mashing; overnight skin-contact and pressing on next morning

Fermentation: 50 % in stainless steel, 50 % in 500-lt.-casks of “Ybbstaler Eiche” – Austrian oak (dense oak), with mild influence on the wine

Maturing: 50 % in stainless steel, 50 % for 6 months on the lees in the casks and malolactic fermentation in the 500 litre barrels

Bottling: May

Alcohol: 13.8 %vol.

Acidity: 4.5 g/l.

Residual sugar: 5.2 g/l.

Characteristic: bright yellow colour; Veltliner spiciness in the nose and exotic fruit; on the palate a combination of mild fruit, minerality and power; enormous length of finish.

Food matching: lobster & fish with spicy sauce, pasties, Asian cuisine.

Ageing potential: 2017
